2012 Order on Petition for Harassment/Restraining Order
 ARNZEN sends BICKFORD an email with the subject line: "Save Me."
 "I can't believe you sent me to prison just for walking past you in the hall... I think about you all the time. I admit I've thought about raping you, but I won't because I know you would never forgive me, and I have morals, and want to go to heaven... I don't want to die, but feel like you want me to die. If you honestly don't want me to commit suicide call 812-532-3992, you could save my life, and you would be a hero."
 "Goodbye, Josh"

@TristyBickford you can hate me and ruin my life all you want, but you can not be a bitch to my friends, you fucking coward.

2012 Order on Petition for Harassment/Restraining Order
 ARNZEN sends the BICKFORDs an email:
 "I'm sorry I wrote that note on facebook, talking about raping her and then killing myself, I was just so frustrated that she kept ignoring my apologies. I kept calling her because she wouldn't answer, so I thought she was home so I called her again later. I would follow her because I thought she was my friend... I never consent to hurt her, I was just so upset, so confused, and I let my emotions control me. It started out between a boy and a girl, but now it must end with a man and a woman..."

ARNZEN emails BICKFORD:
 "Look I'm sorry for stabbing you, I just didn't think it was heinous, I don't know how to get you to answer me, but I'm trying to turn this around. I'm not going to hurt you ever. I may have thought about it, but that's human nature... I've thought about just carving your name into my arm with a knife, but self preservation stopped me. Maybe this whole thing is part of god's master plan. The only thing stopping me from killing myself is the hope that you'll forgive me. My not answering you was talking that hope away. I'm sorry for making you seem like the bad guy, but my fate rests in your hands. Remember that time you actually forgave me on Facebook? I thought that would be the end of it, but then I kept pushing you about Jerry. I'm sorry I got in your business like that. He told me that he raped you, and I was so mad that I planned on killing him."

I thought we'd live the most perfect life. Never even seen us fight. But then one day she died. I prayed to god to take my life. But then I met you one day. I knew we'd fall in love some way. Never even seen us fight, but then one day she died, you stood there by my side. (slow) I thought that you'd be mine. So I threw away my life. And then came the time, and you left me. I told you I would rather die. than live without you by my side. I shot myself in front of your eyes. And you saved me. I thought we'd live the most perfect life. Even after I almost died. Never even seen us fight. But then I died...inside.

On Thursday, May 2, at approximately 8:30 a.m., the Eden Prairie Police Department was notified of a missing person. Mandy Marie Matula, age 24 of Eden Prairie failed to show up for work and was last seen by family at about 11 p.m. Wednesday, May 1.

Police believe Matula was at Miller Park in Eden Prairie at approximately 1:30 a.m. Thursday with David Marshall Roe, age 24, of Victoria.

During the course of the missing person investigation Police identified Roe as a person of interest, and he agreed to speak with an investigator. At approximately 1:30 p.m., upon arrival at the Police station, Roe suffered from a self-inflicted gunshot wound in his vehicle in the Eden Prairie City Center (8080 Mitchell Road) parking lot and was transported to HCMC.

Matula and Roe were believed to be traveling in a 2013 black Ford Escape with Minnesota license plate number 802-KNA when they were last seen. Police are asking anyone with information on Matula's whereabouts or who may have seen the two individuals or the vehicle to call Eden Prairie Police at 952-949-6200.

The Silk Road

Patrol officers and drug task forces should be aware of a website called "The Silk Road," which acts like an anonymous Amazon.com for drug dealers and drug purchasers. Drug dealers post what drugs they have available on The Silk Road and consumers then purchase the drugs using an electronic currency called Bitcoin. Upon receiving the order and the payment, the seller mails the drugs to the consumer. The entire transaction is virtually untraceable.

During a traffic stop on 7/17/13, a suspect admitted to Eden Prairie PD officers that he had recently purchased cocaine via The Silk Road website (EPPD# 13-030365). In a follow-up interview with the Southwest Hennepin Drug Task Force, the suspect said he ordered cocaine through The Silk Road and it was mailed to him in a non-descript package a few days later. He paid with Bitcoins and had no information on who sold him the drugs.

The only way to access The Silk Road website is through the Tor network, which is free software enabling anonymity by masking or hiding a computer's IP address. Tor directs Internet traffic through a network consisting of more than 3,000 relays to conceal a user's location and usage from anyone conducting network surveillance.<sup>1</sup>

Once users have accessed The Silk Road, payments are made via Bitcoins. Bitcoins are a virtual currency used as an alternative to money online. Unlike regular money, Bitcoins are not backed by any government or company. The currency is circulated without intermediaries, such as banks. Bitcoins do not have any inherent value, but they can be exchanged for other currencies. The exchange rate for a Bitcoin, which fluctuates, is currently $144 at Mt. Gox, a Bitcoin exchange.<sup>2</sup>

The Silk Road was established in 2011 and has operated mainly through word of mouth. Recently, the leader of The Silk Road, a person who goes by the pseudonym Dread Pirate Roberts, gave an extensive interview with Forbes magazine, where he explained how the website works and potential plans to begin trading weapons on the site.<sup>3</sup>

This advisory is meant as a brief introduction to The Silk Road for law enforcement and should not be considered as a comprehensive analysis. While The Silk Road is the largest drug trade site, there are several competitors. As use of The Silk Road and similar sites become more popular, interdiction and enforcement of the drug trade may become even more difficult for law enforcement.
